Dear [Redacted]

I should like to express my personal gratitude for the services you recently rendered to the Agency. We especially appreciate the prompt manner in which you responded to our request for assistance. Your willingness to travel the distance you did and to devote several days on our behalf, despite your other heavy commitments, is most praiseworthy. Through your efforts we are now in a much better position to make an assessment.

I look forward to a continuation of this fine relationship.

Faithfully yours,
